EVERYBODY'S DAY.

Clean up—look up—stay up!
It is only a matter of a few weeks when spring cleaning will be with us again.

Let's be ready for it, improve upon the work of past years, and make this town a place of beauty.

Let's make it everybody's day. If everybody leaves it for somebody else to do nothing will be done except in a perfunctory manner, by "we all go to it" with a determination to excel it will only do a small amount of work on part of each individual.

The logical way to do a thing is to do it right in and stick to it until it is done, and then hold it there—allow any slipping or sliding to the old level.

Editorial results may be good enough for some localities, but they are not satisfactory to the people of town. We want something better, something out of the ordinary, quite something with the thrift and intelligence of our community.

Why can't we have a general spring clean-up day, when every citizen will out and put the polish on our town—remove the debris from certain streets, clean up back alleys and unthoroughfares, and place the stamp of cleanliness, sanitation and order upon the whole community? We object to closing the business for a day in order to hold a picnic or other celebration.

A common occurrence all over the country and everybody has a gala time.

But who ever heard of a town closing up business in order to take a municipal bath?

It's a good move for this town to inaugurate.

We're for a cleanup holiday, with everybody in action.

Are you? Say "yes."

'Home, Sweet Home'—that's the music for me

IT WAS a rotten night.
RAIN, WIND, mud, slush.
AND AFTER a hard day,
IT MADE me sore.
TO GET all dolled up,
JUST TO go calling,
ON A pair of fish,
I NEVER could see.
BUT ORDERS is orders,
FROM FRIEND wife,
AND "GEE," I said,
"THIS IS a bum life."
THEN THE phone rang.
AND THE party was off,
I CLIMBED out quick.
FROM THE soup and fish,
INTO THE easy clothes,
AND SAT by the fire.
TOASTING MY toes,

AND WATCHING my wife,
QUIETLY KNITTING away,
IN THE firelight.
AND I heard the rain,
BEAT AT the windows,
AND THE winter wind,
HOWL AROUND.
AND I stretched out.
IN THE old arm chair,
TOOK UP a book.
LIT ONE of those cigarettes,
THAT "SATISFY."
AND SAID, "Oh, Man,
IT'S a great old life."

IT'S a great life, all right—some times. But in fair weather or foul you've got a lean-to if you've got Chesterfields—they always "Satisfy." It's all in the way we blend these Turkish and Domestic tobaccos. As mind you—the "Satisfy-blend" can be copied!

Is Telling The Nation of This Wonderful Southland—

This land of perennial springtime and summer shade, of blooming flowers and balmy breezes, wherein to rest and play, to seek and capture health and happiness in wholesome living and boundless prosperity.

This elaborately-prepared, truthfully-informative literature has been systematically and continually distributed throughout the sections of the country where living is more strenuous and climatic conditions less favorable. And the good work is still going on.

L. & N. newspaper advertising is now appearing in more than a hundred cities north of the Ohio River, telling of the attractions of this particular section of the South.

This productive publicity has naturally resulted in untold direct benefit to New Orleans, Mobile and the Gulf Coast and substantial collateral benefit to others of the eighteen states of the Union which the Louisville and Nashville Railroad directly serves.

These booklets, folders, etc., are always to be had for the asking; and two of the recent ones—"New Orleans" and "The Gulf Coast"—are striking examples of beautiful and practical information.

Readers of this newspaper or signed Louisville and Nashville names and addresses of friends whom they would like to send booklets.
